V. Resolutions of the 43rd Session Lucknow, 28-29 January, 1970.

Resolution II: "The Commission resolves that the Government of India be requested to treat the National Archives of India Annexe as a functional building and to give top priority to its construction, which is absolutely essential for the National Archives of India to effectively discharge its responsibilities, and particularly to implement the Archival Policy Resolution which requires it to accept custody of billions of the non-current public records lying scattered and neglected in the various Ministries/Departments of the Government of India".

NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF INDIA: Considering the urgent need for construction of the Annexe to the National Archives of India, the Government of India has, as a special case, agreed to make a budget provision of Rs.2.00 lakhs in 1975-76 to enable the C.P.W.D. to complete architectural competitions for design and preparation of drawings according to the finally selected design. The question of taking up the actual work of construction of the building will be considered after the design has been finalised.

Resolution III: "The Commission is greatly perturbed over the reported large scale destruction of old public records in several States, notwithstanding the repeated recommendations of the Commission (vide Resolution No.II of 1925, Resolution No. VII of 1942, Resolution No.V of 1943, Resolution VI of 1951) and resolves that a Sub-Committee consisting of five Members of the Commission be constituted to investigate and report to the Standing Committee, within six months, on the following:

(a) the extent to which the above resolutions are being implemented;

(b) the period and the nature of records destroyed during the last two years;

(c) the qualifications and suitability of the staff engaged on appraisal of old records; and

(d) the steps which can be taken immediately to ensure to preservation of records of permanent value.

2. The Commission also recommends to the State Governments that no pre-1947 records be destroyed till the said Committee has submitted its report".

In pursuance of the Resolution the Government of India set up the Committee on Record Management consisting of the following members:-

1.	Dr. B.P.Saksena	Chairman	Retired professor of History, Allahabad University.
